DOCUMENT TRANSLATION SERVICES AGREEMENT

Pacific Bridge Translation Pte. Ltd. / Demo Customer LLC

PARTIES AND EFFECTIVE DATE

This Document Translation Services Agreement is entered into by Pacific Bridge Translation Pte. Ltd., a company incorporated in Singapore with offices in Singapore ('Pacific Bridge'), and Demo Customer LLC ('Customer'). Pacific Bridge Translation Pte. Ltd. is the vendor supplying professional translation and localization services under this Agreement. The Effective Date is February 2, 2026. Each party confirms it has obtained internal authorization to enter this Agreement.

TRANSLATION SERVICES SCOPE

Pacific Bridge will translate written materials from source languages into target languages listed in Exhibit 1 using qualified linguists. Services include translation, bilingual review, and formatting consistent with Customer style guides when provided. Rush delivery, desktop publishing, and machine translation post-editing are available at rates in Exhibit 2 when requested in writing. Customer will supply clean source files and reference terminology. Pacific Bridge may decline content that violates law or its ethical guidelines after notice.

INITIAL TERM AND RENEWAL

The initial term of this Agreement is twelve (12) months starting on the Effective Date. Upon expiration of the initial term or any renewal term, this Agreement will automatically renew for additional twelve (12) month periods unless either party gives written notice of non-renewal at least fourteen (14) days before the end of the then-current term. Renewal continues the rate card in Exhibit 2 unless both parties sign an updated rate schedule. Non-renewal notices must be emailed to the contract administrator on the signature page.

RATES AND PAYMENT

Customer will pay per-word translation fees and review fees according to Exhibit 2 based on actual word counts in delivered files. Volumes are not committed; Customer may submit projects opportunistically without minimum purchase obligations. Invoices are payable within twenty-one (21) days of invoice date in Singapore dollars by wire transfer. Disputed line items must be raised within ten business days; undisputed amounts remain due on schedule. Pacific Bridge may suspend new project starts for overdue undisputed balances after notice.

QUALITY AND ACCEPTANCE

Pacific Bridge will deliver translations with linguistic review per Exhibit 1 quality tier selected for each project. Customer may request corrections for objective errors within five business days of delivery. Subjective stylistic preferences require change orders. Accepted deliverables are deemed accepted if Customer uses them externally or does not respond within the review window. Recurring quality issues will be addressed in quarterly business reviews with root-cause analysis.

TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE

Either party may terminate this Agreement for convenience upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to the other party. Termination for convenience does not affect fees for translation work already performed or in progress under approved purchase orders. Pacific Bridge will deliver completed files and work-in-progress materials through the effective termination date. Customer will pay for words translated and review completed through termination. Surviving provisions include payment, confidentiality, limitation of liability, and governing law.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Except for liability that cannot be limited by applicable law, Pacific Bridge's aggregate liability for all claims arising under or related to this Agreement is capped at the fees paid for the specific translation job giving rise to the claim. Neither party is liable for indirect, consequential, or lost profit damages. Customer must notify Pacific Bridge of any claim within thirty days of discovering the issue related to a delivered file. The cap applies to all theories of liability collectively for that job.

PERSONAL DATA AND PDPA

When source or reference materials contain personal data of Customer employees, customers, or third parties, Pacific Bridge will process that personal data solely to perform translation services in accordance with Singapore's Personal Data Protection Act (PDPA). Pacific Bridge will restrict access to assigned linguists under confidentiality duties, store files on secured systems, and notify Customer without undue delay of confirmed unauthorized access affecting such personal data. Customer represents it has lawful grounds to provide the materials.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Each party may receive non-public business information marked confidential or reasonably understood to be confidential. The receiving party will use confidential information only to perform this Agreement and will not disclose it except to personnel and advisors under confidentiality obligations. Translation memories and glossaries owned by Customer remain Customer property. Confidentiality survives three years after termination. Required legal disclosures are permitted with notice where allowed.

GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement is governed by the laws of Singapore without regard to conflict-of-law principles that would apply another jurisdiction. The parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Singapore for disputes arising out of this Agreement, subject to either party seeking interim injunctive relief elsewhere when necessary. Notices must be sent by email with confirmation or courier to addresses on the signature page. Amendments require written agreement signed by authorized representatives.
